BookBaby, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. My name is Marie Lake. I was born in the beautiful sunny Island of Jamaica, West Indies in a town called Mandeville in the County of Manchester. I grew up in Jamaica until I was 11 years old. My dad s mother, my mother s mother and my GOD mother play a very significant role in the tender part of my younger years in raising me. The childhood memories I remember always involved going to Church and taking part in church activities. When they had a programme I would always recite Isaiah 60 v, they would put me on a chair to stand I was three. As the years progressed, I started to recite different and lengthy poems. When I came to England I went to secondary school. I was given homework by my teacher who expected us to learn and recite it when she was calling the register. I would be learning it as she was calling the register and be able to recall all when my name was called. I like living in England. The longest I have been out of the country was six weeks, when I went to visit my homeland with two of my children. I have three boys and three girls. Nine grandchildren six boys and three girls, another boy is on the way. Two great grandchildren, one boy and one girl. The boy was still born. I give Thanks to the Lord for I am a Blessed woman. Writing THE ANGEL OF THE LORD was a great experience for me. I had received prophesy that I should write, yet I was not motivated to do so. Until one day, I visited a church were the Pastor had written some books and he...
