Baldwin, of Connecticut: In Favor of the Admission of California Into the Union, and on the Territorial Bills, and the Bill in Relation to Fugitive Slaves, in Connection With Mr. Bell s Compromise Resolutions The Senate having under consideration the resolutions of Mr. Bell, of Tennessee, and the motion of Mr. Foore to refer them to a Select Committee of Thirteen, Mr. Baldwin said: To that motion, Mr. President, an amendment was offered by myself on a former occasion, which was subsequently modified at the suggestion of the Senator from Missouri, [Mr. Benton,] to exclude from the consideration of the committee the subject-matter of the message of the President transmitting the constitution of California, and recommending her admission into the Union. It is upon that motion that I propose to address the Senate, availing myself of the opportunity it affords me to express my views somewhat at large upon other questions connected with the proposition and with the resolutions introduced by the Senator from Tennessee, [Mr. Bell.] I have listened, Mr. President, with deep interest to the discussions in the Senate on the questions presented by the message of the President, and the resolutions of the distinguished Senators from Kentucky and Tennessee. In the general tone and spirit which have characterized the debate, I have seen much to admire and something to regret. It has been my endeavor to keep my own mind free from any undue excitement, with a determination, in any legislative act which I may be called upon to perform, to be governed by the spirit of the Constitution and of the distinguished men who cooperated...
