Thome, of Kentucky, Delivered at the Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society, May 6, 1834; Letter of the Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Cox, Against the American Colonization Society The result of the great debate in the Lane Seminary, in relation to Slavery and the American Colonization Society, presents one of the noblest exhibitions of the power of truth upon the hearts and consciences of man, that the world has ever witnessed. The letter of Mr. Stanton, giving the particulars thereof, is remarkable for its simplicity, ingenuousness, and moral excellence. The Rev. Dr. Beecher is the President of Lane Seminary; and the institution itself is second in importance to no other in the United States. The speech of Mr. James A. Thome has made a very powerful impression upon the public mind. This young gentleman is the son of a slaveholder in Kentucky; and the attitude assumed by him, therefore, is truly sublime. The abominations of the slave system which he discloses, are of the...
