By Maire MacSwiney Brugh

O'Brien Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, History's Daughter: A Memoir from the Only Child of Terence MacSwiney (2nd Revised edition), Maire MacSwiney Brugh, Maire MacSwiney Brugh is the only child of Terence MacSwiney, one of the greatest figures in Ireland's history, who died after seventy-three days on hunger strike in Brixton Prison on 25 October 1920. His death became worldwide news. MacSwiney is reputed to have been quoted by Mahatma Gandhi as the main inspiration for his own life's work leading to the downfall of the British empire in India; Ho Chi Minh said of MacSwiney: 'A nation which has such citizens will never surrender'. At the time of his death Maire was a young child. Her mother, Muriel, a member of the wealthy Murphy distillery family, had made an extraordinary and controversial match in marrying MacSwiney. The young widow then abandoned Ireland for continental Europe, taking her little daughter with her. For nine years Maire was to live away from Ireland, mostly in Germany with occasional breaks in Paris with her mother. She grew up effectively as a German child, speaking the German language, skiing to school - and forgetting all about her Irish background. This...
