CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY 5 in an enlisted occupation that is relevant to their future duties as warrant officers, give them additional technical training, and then promote them more rapidly than under the early-select model. Midcareer selection offers more modest financial rewards than early selection does, however, particularly for people who would have advanced rapidly through the enlisted ranks. The Navy selects its warrant officers from among enlisted personnel late in their careers and generally does not give them additional training before they assume their new duties. Most of those selected are in grade E-7 (chief petty officer); the rest have advanced even farther. Although the Navy bypasses the lowest warrant officer pay grade, appointing most selectees in grade W-2, a late-career transfer to the warrant ranks yields only a small initial pay advantage over enlisted service for TABLE 1.
