The Beautiful Deadly Children: The Gospel According to Goth

By Bertie Weirdly, David Westwood, Paul Steventon-Marks

Mallard Independent Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Beautiful Deadly Children: The Gospel According to Goth, Bertie Weirdly, David Westwood, Paul Steventon-Marks, Welcome to this biographical book on The Beautiful Deadly Children. Those with a nervous disposition should consider leaving immediately, as you are now about to enter the world of the undead. The Beautiful Deadly Children are a Rock, Goth and Alternative band who are currently playing the club circuit up and down the United Kingdom. The book investigates the music, the fashion, the make-up, the comedy and the gossip that make The Beautiful Deadly Children totally unique. Described by Meltdown Magazine as, 'The UK's Vampire Scene's most decadently dressed individuals', and 'The band that exudes kitsch Goth from every pore', these Children of the Night continue to spread their own strange philosophy of style, elegance and vampirism to the elite and unwary. From the salons of Count Alexander Von Berghasy, to sipping strange scarlet liquid in teacups at the Ritz, this is the band that revels in sheer decadence, inviting all to join them on their macabre and stately procession from death. You have arrived. The black banners proclaim your arrival. You stand on the threshold....
