Berghahn Books, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. .convincing in its arguments, Baer s Dismantling the Dream Factory is a nicely structured work that offers a good mixture of historiography and close analysis. Baer effectively draws on contemporary press and advertising materials to highlight extradiegetic discourses surrounding the films, particularly to show how they made their appeals to female viewers. Monatshefte .makes a significant and original contribution, is well researched as well as written, and would lend itself conveniently to the teaching of any of these films.[It] bring[s] to bear theories from Anglo-American film studies as well as German cultural studies and...
