They saw the engineer running. They saw him stoop down and lift a little lamb from the sunken water barrel. Its fleece was dripping with water. The engineer placed the half-drowned creature by its mother s side. And then what a cheer arose from the passengers for the kind deed which he had done. The fireman drove the sheep from the track and turned them toward the hillside pasture. A brakeman pumped the water barrel full of water for the thirsty flock. Back ran the engineer to his engine. All aboard, shouted the conductor, as he swung himself upon the last car of the rolling train. Late that afternoon a happy mother sheep wandered back to the pasture with Lambkin White following very slowly in her tracks. He prayeth well, who loveth well Both man, and bird, and...
