Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Dodecanese and the British Press: 4th December, 1918 January 27th, 1919 On coming to Europe we received a mandate from the whole Dodecanese to remind the civilized world everywhere of the services rendered to humanity by these islands, which gave birth to Herodotus, Hippocrates, Pherecydes, Praxagoras, and St. John the Divine, and to so many poets, historians, philosophers and physicians. Our mission is to make universally known the indisputable rights of the Dodecanese to freedom, and the ardent desire of the islanders, belonging to a race which has been pure Greek for 3,000 years, to be re-united to the Mother-country, and to live or die Greeks. Immediately on arriving in this free and hospitable country of England, we submitted the following memorandum to their Excellencies Mr. Lloyd George, M. Clemenceau, then in London, and the President of the United States, Mr. Wilson. We now present to the reader some articles concerning the Dodecanese, which have appeared since then in the English press, in order that he may form a clear idea of English public opinion on this subject. We intend to publish later a few of the numerous letters which have reached us - important and enlightening letters - extremely interesting not only to us, but also to the chivalrous and liberal English people, who are called upon to show interest in the Dodecanese, and to pay special attention to a question which is of vital importance to them also, for Rhodes and Astypalea in the Dodecanese might become important naval bases in the Mediterranean between the East and the West. A single glance at the map is sufficient to show the importance of...
