TRAVELS OF WILLIAM BARTRAM RECONSIDERED

John Bartram Association. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 112 pages. Dimensions: 11.4in. x 8.6in. x 2.2in. Combining humor and seriousness, this picture-filled book beautifully documents an artistic collaboration across more than two centuries. The 18th-century naturalist artist William Bartram is renowned for his Travels, a volume recounting his 1770s trip through the American Southeast and for his revelatory drawings. Mark Dion is a contemporary artist famous for working with historical and museum collections, and for site-specific displays that mimic the historical exhibits surrounding them. Commissioned for the landmark John Bartram house at Philadelphia's Bartram's Garden, the Travels Reconsidered exhibition and Dion's 21st-century journey that produced it are evoked in Travels of William Bartram - Reconsidered, a book filled with copious photographs, drawings, and texts. Essays by the organizing art curator and an art critic; the first history of Bartram's Garden published in 50 years, by its Resident Bartram Scholar; and excerpts from Mark Dion's travel diary and reproductions of letters and texts about the project and its people make this book a treasure trove of exploration that encompasses different times, spaces, and ideas of natural history and art. Distributed by Temple University Press for The John Bartram Association. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, or La Vergne, TN. Hardcover.
