Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The true story of the life of a rural funeral director from birth to professional success to failure in multiple marriages Everyone who lives sixty-six plus years has a story to tell. This is mine! My parents lived during an important and difficult period in the history of our country. The Great Depression changed people and changed the way they worked and raised their families. My Daddy worked hard and raised his children to work hard. This is my story of how I grew up under my parents notions and ideas and how I was blessed to know at an early age what direction my life would take professionally and how that carried me through my entire life. I have tried to portray some of those individuals honestly and give a true accounting of how each and every one of them affected me and my life. My life was not perfect-far from it. I made a lot of mistakes along the way and I have admitted them (well some of them). There were funny events, events that...
