THE STAR OF CHRISTMAS

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Christine Watson-Buntemeyer (illustrator). 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Tucker worked out in the huge metal arena, with the dogs he trained for the police and for the military, until half-past twelve. Clare had said last night that it would be after one o'clock before help could get there. Well, he was no dummy. her wording. was irksome. He knew with certainty his sister was now on a plane headed to Guatemala with a big silly grin plastered on her face. Short of piling three children into his truck last night, after her mid-night call, and driving down to Corpus Christi. there was nothing he could do about it. What form this help would come in, still remained to be seen. Clare was known for some harebrained ideas. But this time there was too much at stake for these kids. Since his S.O.S. Saturday night, he hadn't had to worry about the impassioned arguments between them, or the resulting tears, or even any disobedience. It was like they had all decided to become turtles and crawl into their own shells to grieve. Tucker looked out the big window in the living room and saw a new Ford SUV pull in and stop. No one got out. He could just make out a mass of blond hair and almost groaned. He had been hoping for gray, motherly, experienced. He had been hoping Clare had used some sense this time. By the time he had gone down the front steps, the driver was slowly emerging and still gazing in wonder in the direction of the house. Tucker stopped in his tracks. Oh Clare! No wonder there wasn't any gray hair. Help looked about...
