HEARTS ASYLUM

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You may want to take in a very deep breath. . . Every page is a heartbeat; some chapters are fast paced, highly pulsating, and palpitating. Tachycardia, Dr Jeff, the experienced head of cardio, will likely diagnose you or relaxing and easy but not mortally slow (bradycardia another heart disease of the ventricles). From the moment you take a breath in - the prologue, where the unknown passenger, representing the unknown millions who die annually, suddenly dies of asystole on the back of a commercial motorcycle. To the part when you breathe out (epilogue), hearts asylum is clearly a book that will change your heart and the way you see it. The novel explores the dilemma, challenges, and the hope of Nigerians living, suffering, and dying from cardiovascular disease and heart failures etc. Bayo and his wife Helen in the UK, Mr. and Mrs. James from Asaba, Terah Braide from Jos and Edna are the main surgical cases representing the four chambers of the heart. The book brings to life such expressions as eat your heart out , you stole my heart , etc. In quick succession likened to the quick and sudden death strike of cardiac arrest, first James collapses and is taken to a Federal medical center in Asaba, that day begins his six-month search and wait for help and a heart transplant. To show that CVD does not only affect Nigerians living in Nigeria. Helen who puts to bed a set of twins in the UK is diagnosed with dilated cardiomyopathy a week after delivery and needs a heart transplant - which is easier and with more donors over there - but there...
