

The Clapper Memo

By Bob McCarty

Bob McCarty, L.L.C. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 272 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. I spent most of the past four years conducting an exhaustive investigation of the U. S. governments use of interrogation technologies, including the polygraph. Youll be amazed at what I discovered. My journey began in April 2009 when I asked Pentagon officials to answer a handful of questions about a new portable polygraph device that had been deployed to Afghanistan and Iraq one year earlier. While waiting for them to respond, I sought answers elsewhere and found plenty in locations all around the world. Most importantly, I found evidence of an unconventional war a turf war thats been raging silently for 40 years, shows no signs of easing, and impacts Americans around the world. In my latest nonfiction book, THE CLAPPER MEMO, I share never-before-published details from the front lines of this turf war: I expose the win-at-all-cost strategy employed by polygraph loyalists to discredit all challengers to their technologys status as the U. S. Governments credibility assessment tool of choice; I reveal the lengths to which high-ranking polygraph loyalists inside the Departments of Defense and Justice have shown they are willing to go to maintain...
